

Teaching and Learning through eLearning, the Ontario Tech University AQ course, is offered online this winter. This is an opportunity for you to explore online education in all models, to share ideas, thoughts and questions, to reflect and receive feedback on and to develop your own practice within a collaborative and supportive community.

WHEN 11 January to 12 March

WHERE Completely Online

COST $600 plus $75 registration

INSTRUCTOR Dan Strutt, Director, eLearning Consortium Canada

Unit 1 A Framework: Theories, Policies and Standards in Online Education

Unit 2 Curriculum Design

Unit 3 Instructional Design

Unit 4 The Future of eLearning

Register at education.ontariotechu.ca and follow the Professional Learning and AQ links. For further information, contact Dan Strutt at dan.strutt@elccanada.ca or 519 694 9639.

“Honestly, this is my sixth online AQ/ABQ course and it was by far the most useful.”

“Preparing a unit for my own teaching was exactly what I needed. It was like personal coaching for teachers!”

Recent Participants